Denton; Treasurer, Charles Croshinsky; Register of Deeds, James McLaughlin; Prosecuting Attorney, A. W. Mills.

Mrs. Jas. Brown has returned from her visit to Canada and is ready for a brisk fall campaign and will open her fashionable emporium in a day or two with as elegant a line of ladies' headwear as ever came to Yale and as usual will lead in establishing popular prices, in harmony with the general reduction in every other line of goods. Come and see.

A sour old bachelor takes a fiendish delight in calling attention to the fact that there is one thing women cannot do anyhow, and that is, tie their masculine cravats. "They may wear 'em," he says, "but they can't tie 'em. I've seen vests on 'em," he continued, warming up, "that in ten minutes would drive a man into imbecility if he had to wear the like of them."

The Republican caucus held in the village hall Tuesday evening was quite largely attended, 53 votes being polled. Harvey Tappan was elected chairman, J. A. Menzies, secretary, R. M. Lothian and Lara Butler, tellers. The delegates to attend the county convention to-day, Friday, are Benj. Evans, J. A. Menzies, George Middleton, Lara Butler, R. M. Lothian, Willard Welch and Isaac Menery.

Advertising makes your name known to distant people, and, although they may not afterward remember just what you then advertised, yet when they come your way they will recognize the name over your store as a familiar one. Though there be a dozen places in your line of business around and about you, they will instinctively enter yours first, for they feel that they are not going into a strange place.

The number of schools secured by former scholars of the Yale school and the success attained by them reflects great credit on the management of our schools. Ida Shearer will teach in the Schram school the coming winter; Chas. Perkins in the Grant Centre district; Maud Freeman will manipulate the ruler in a Lynn district, while Susie McKernan will teach the young minds of the Avoca school; Selma Hoskin in the Bidleman district and Cassie Newell at the Remington school. Yale citizens should feel proud of the excellent corps of teachers employed in our public schools.

Mrs. Thomas Abbott, living in Greenwood, 1 1/2 north and 1 1/2 miles west of Fargo, having rented her farm will offer for sale by public auction at the premises on Wednesday, October 10th, 1894, commencing at 2 o'clock sharp, all her farm stock, implements, etc. Geo. W. Bell, auctioneer.

Elder John F. Rowe, editor of the Christian Leader, of Cincinnati, Ohio, will be at the Menery meeting house this coming Lord's day, September 23, and will speak in the morning at 11 o'clock, in the afternoon at 2 o'clock and again in the evening. A number of people from a distance is expected and ample provisions are made for the entertainment of all.

As we desire to have the Exposition present a neat and attractive appearance we this week discarded the old heading and substituted a new one. It has always been our aim to make the Exposition a newspaper in every sense of the word and to present it to our subscribers in a readable form. We hope our patrons will appreciate the efforts put forth and give us an increased patronage.

Our genial townsman, Harvey Tappan, is doing his best to secure patronage to the fair and races to be held in Yale next week, as the following remark made to the editor of the Port Huron Daily Times and published in that newspaper last Saturday shows:—"Come up to our town during the last week in September. We are going to have the finest fair in the county." Let everybody interested keep our fair in mind and thoroughly advertise it.

Wants Big Damages.

Henry P. McCabe, agent for the Champion agricultural machinery, has, through Avery Bros. & Walsh, commenced a suit against the village of Yale for $10,000. McCabe claims that on May 10, 1894, he stepped into a hole in the sidewalk near the Commercial hotel, in Yale, and severely injured his knee.—Port Huron Daily Times. The council of the village will fight Mr. McCabe's claim to the end.

W. E. DAVIS, G. & T. A., Chicago.
D means Daily, N. Except Sunday.
These companies have the lowest rates to all points East and West selling through tickets over all connecting lines in the office of the Register of Deeds for St. Clair County, Michigan, in Lib. 61 of Mortgages, on page 302, on the 28th day of April, 1894, at 2 o'clock p. m., executed by Joseph Bowers, an unmarried man, to Harvey Tappan.

Whereby the power of sale in said mortgage has become operative and there is claimed to be due on April 23, 1894, the full sum of Three Hundred and Ninety six Dollars, ($396.00), as installment and interest on said mortgage, and an attorney fee of Twenty-five Dollars, ($25.00). No suit at law or in equity having been instituted to recover said amount.

Notice is hereby given that the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the mortgaged premises at public auction or vendue, to the highest bidder at the front door of the City Hall in the City of Port Huron, in said county, that being the place for holding the Circuit Court in said county of St. Clair, on the 15th day of October, 1894, at one o'clock in the afternoon of that day, to satisfy the amount of said installment and interest due on said mortgage, together with said attorney fee and the costs of this foreclosure. And notice is also given that the said sale will be made expressly subject to the payment of $200 of the principal of said mortgage that is not yet due.

Said mortgaged premises are described as follows, as is shown by said mortgage: The east half (1/2) of the east half (1/2) of the north-east quarter (1/4) of Section five (5), town four (4) north, range fifteen (15) east, containing forty acres of land, more or less.
Dated this 16th day of July, 1894.
JOE W. AVERY, HARVEY TAPPAN,
Attorney for Mortgagee
